

ST. LUKE'S ON BROADWAY

Lessons and music from your favorite Broadway musicals.

Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost
August 14, 2016
at Ten Fifty A.M.

Man of La Mancha

Do you ever daydream you're a hero, fighting the evils of the world? That's what the character Don Quixote does in this brilliant musical. While his adventures seem eccentric and comical, his heart is in the right place. But you and I don't have to fight the world's battles on our own. Our kindness can change the world - one person at a time.

I, Don Quixote (Man of La Mancha)

After being thrown into the dungeon by the Spanish Inquisition, Cervantes requests a trial to defend his actions. He transforms himself into a chivalrous knight committed to fighting injustice. He renames himself Don Quixote,

The Man of La Mancha.

Mat Govich, soloist

Hear me now, oh thou bleak and unbearable world. Thou art base and debauched as can be; and a knight with his banners all bravely unfurled now hurls down his gauntlet to thee!

I am I, Don Quixote, the Lord of La Mancha, My destiny calls and I go, and the wild winds of fortune will carry me onward, oh, whither-so-ever they blow, whither-so-ever they blow, onward to glory I go!

Hear me, heathens and wizards and serpents of sin! All your dastardly doings are past, for a holy endeavor is now to begin and virtue shall triumph at last!

I am I, Don Quixote, the Lord of La Mancha. My destiny calls and I go, and the wild winds of fortune will carry me onward, oh, whither-so-ever they blow, whither-so-ever they blow, onward to glory I go!

I have dreamed thee too long, never seen thee or touched thee but known thee with all of my heart. Half a prayer, half a song, thou hast always been with me, 'though we have been always apart.

Dulcinea, Dulcinea, I see heaven when I see thee, Dulcinea; and thy name is like a prayer an angel whispers, Dulcinea, Dulcinea.

If I reach out to thee, do not tremble and shrink from the touch of my hand on thy hair. Let my fingers but see thou art warm and alive and no phantom to fade in the air.

Dulcinea, Dulcinea, I have sought thee, sung thee, dreamed thee, Dulcinea; now I've found thee and the world shall know thy glory, Dulcinea, Dulcinea.

†DOXOLOGY

†THE GOSPEL

Rev. David Poteet

Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and although there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you girded yourself and walked where you would; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish to go." (This he said to show by what death he was to glorify God.) And after this he said to him, "Follow me."

(John 21:10 - 19)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Mat Govich, soloist

Chancel Choir and St. Luke's Orchestra

Robert Fasol, piano

Eric Bradford, conductor

To dream the impossible dream, to fight the unbeatable foe, to bear with unbearable sorrow, to run where the brave dare not go. To right the unrightable wrong, to love pure and chaste from afar, to try when your arms are too weary, to reach the unreachable star!

This is my quest, to follow that star, no matter how hopeless, no matter how far; to fight for the right without question or pause, to be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause! And I know if I'll only be true to this glorious quest, that my heart will lie peaceful and calm, when I'm laid to my rest.

And the world will be better for this, that one man, scorned and covered with scars, still strove with his last ounce of courage to reach the unreachable stars.
