1 Corinthians 14:34-35

the women should keep silence in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be subordinate, as even the law says. 35 If there is anything they desire to know, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church.

Why do we read the Bible?

Revelation

The revelation is never as important as what it as reveals.

William (Billy) J. Abraham
1947-

“First, the canonical treasures of the church are not confined to scripture; they are constituted by a rich network of materials, practices, and persons. We need more than scripture to make us wise and build us up in the faith. We need the canonical practices of preaching, baptism, and Eucharist. We need the Creed to get our bearings intellectually in the new world of the kingdom and church that we have entered. We need proper icons to instruct the eye. We need the canonical theologians of the church to tutor us in real theology. We need the saints to inspire us to new levels of holiness.”

Matthew 22:35-40

And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, to test him. 36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" 37 And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. 38 This is the great and first commandment. 39 And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 40 On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."
